01 | Supporting Autoimmune Physicians

Autoimmune diseases are complex, so practice efficiency has become increasingly important and CuraScript SD recognizes this. CuraScript SD understands shrinking reimbursement, changing regulations and rising operating costs continue to fluctuate for specialty physicians.

Our extensive product catalog ensures access to the therapies you need to preserve and enhance patient care.

02 | Customized Solutions

Autoimmune therapies are diverse and have many different areas within this specialty. CuraScript SD works to simplify the needs of community practices. We provide integrated delivery solutions to safely and consistently distribute pharmaceuticals and medical supplies for office or clinic administration. In addition to an extensive inventory, our services include:

- Competitive pricing on pharmaceuticals and supplies
- Rebate and contract management services
- Simplified billing & flexible terms
- Easy ordering options and more

03 | Dedicated Account Managers

As the leading distribution service provider to the Autoimmune market, our Dedicated Account Managers work closely with every account to recognize the unique needs of your practice and ensure you are maximizing your savings potential.

03 | Nationwide Service & Distribution

It is critical that products arrive on time and in exceptional condition. All packages are properly prepared and shipped through CuraScript SD's pick-pack-and-ship process. We offer next-day and expedited shipping on many products. With access to tracking information and detailed order details, customers are able to monitor the status of their orders.
