Profound Partnership

CuraScript SD is committed to deepening relationships with our medical providers. As a specialty distributor, we are your partner in care and serve as an extension of you. CuraScript SD prides itself on anticipating your needs and surpassing expectations. We use our expertise and personalized service to meet your individual needs and to help you accomplish your practice goals. With dedication to offering high-quality care, we strive to deliver the best possible outcomes for you and your patients.

Hyper specialization

Every single patient is important, and that's why when you work with CuraScript SD you are working with a dedicated Account Manager. Our one-on-one approach helps serve you better so that you can serve your patients better. Our account managers work to strengthen their knowledge and expertise through best practices and shared knowledge with our subsidiary organizations. We provide extensive specialized experience and broad reach across the healthcare system, with a deep understanding of market dynamics.

Personalized innovation

We are continuously developing new services, solutions and processes to provide resolutions to our partners' needs. It is essential for CuraScript SD to actively listen and focus on the needs of our medical providers, building personal connections that help us understand each practice's unique challenges. Taking the cumulative knowledge and resources available, we assist in implementing strategic improvements to any facility. These valuable solutions provide benefits ranging from practice management to increased efficiency.
